Family Promise of Jacksonville (hereafter Family Promise) and Lakewood Church routinely take photographs or make audio or video recordings (images) of participants in Family Promise and Lakewood Church events and activities including the Cardboard City event. There are times when Family Promise and/or Lakewood Church would like to use the images in reports, presentations, and/or publicity/promotion for the organizations.

Please complete only ONE of the options below:

I, _____, individually, and if applicable, in my capacity as the parent or legal guardian of the above child, hereby GRANT Family Promise of Jacksonville and Lakewood Church, the right to make edit, use, or display photos and audio/video recordings (images) of my child and/or me without compensation or any other consideration. I agree that the images may be used in any form of written or electronic media now existing or created in the future, including standard print, websites, CD or DVD. I understand that by signing this release, I waive the right to inspect or approve any finished product in which my likeness appears, and that this release will remain in effect indefinitely, unless I otherwise revoke this authorization in writing. I understand that the images will be externally released but will only be used for news or publicity purposes to benefit Family Promise and Lakewood UMC and will not be used for profit by any individual or entity. I further understand that my/my child's images will not be identified by name without further consent.

I, _____, DO NOT grant Family Promise permission to use my/my child's images for any news or publicity purpose.
